Established in 1951, IOM is a Related Organization of the United Nations, and as the leading UN agency in the field of migration, works closely with governmental, intergovernmental and non-governmental partners. IOM is dedicated to promoting humane and orderly migration for the benefit of all. It does so by providing services and advice to governments and migrants.

IOM is committed to a diverse and inclusive environment. Internal and external candidates are eligible to apply to this vacancy. For the purpose of the vacancy, internal candidates are considered as first-tier candidates.

Context:

Resettlement is a vital protection tool and a lifeline for those in need of international protection who are unable to return to their country of origin for fear of continued persecution and are also not able to stay in the first country of asylum due to a lack of local integration opportunities. IOM plays a key role in global resettlement and works along the full resettlement continuum from identification to integration.

The IOM office in Finland is engaged in resettlement to Finland, Iceland and Sweden. Resettlement cooperation with these countries includes the provision of Pre-Departure Orientation (PDO) for Finland-bound refugees to help them develop practical skills and attitudes that contribute to their early integration. PDO is arranged through ca. 3-day sessions in countries of first asylum by PDO trainers dispatched from IOM Finland. Furthermore, IOM also aims to support integration efforts after the arrival of refugees or other migrants.

Under the direct supervision by the Head of Office of IOM Finland and in close cooperation with relevant units at IOM Finland, the successful candidate will be responsible for coordination of project activities concerning Pre-Departure Orientation (PDO) for refugees.

Core Functions/ Responsibilities:

1. Coordinate all aspects of assigned projects, or assigned project components.
2. Maintain partnerships at appropriate levels with government entities, local authorities, implementing partners, donors, and other stakeholders as relevant to implementation of assigned projects and activities.
3. Coordinate and liaise with IOM country offices in refugees' countries of first asylum worldwide in view of planning, implementing and reporting of PDO sessions.
4. Supervise and guide staff assigned to the projects/components in the above thematic areas.
5. Coordinate the deployment of PDO trainers, including their recruitment, training/induction, assignment and scheduling of PDO sessions worldwide, and the collection of feedback and mission reports as applicable.
6. Implement the monitoring and backstopping mechanisms in place, including internal/external evaluations of the projects/components under implementation as required, and comply with all reporting obligations.
7. Coordinate and, where required participate in, the development of relevant training curricula, methodologies and written/audio-visual materials for assigned projects/components, as well as translations of materials where required.
8. Participate in delivering trainings and presentations to external and internal stakeholders.
9. Undertake duty trips as necessary, including international travel to refugees' countries of first asylum.
10. Coordinate the timely and complete collection and storage of administrative and financial documentation of assigned projects in line with IOM and donor rules, and participate in the preparation of financial reports in cooperation with the Resource Management Unit.
11. Draft and submit narrative donor and other reports in a timely manner in line with donor requirements and IOM procedures and standards.
12. Prepare regular briefings, summaries and other relevant information materials; draft and produce content about assigned projects and thematic areas for publication, including through social media channels.
13. Perform such other duties as may be assigned.
